

LABORATORY INFORMATION SYSTEM
LOCATION	Statewide
RESPONSIBLE AGENCY	Queensland Health
PROPOSAL STAGE OF DEVELOPMENT	Detailed Business Case Underway (in parallel with procurement)
PLANNED STAGE END DATE	Q3 2017
NEED	The health sector has changed considerably over the past decade and significant technological advances have been made. The Queensland Government Information and Communications Technology Audit 2012 lists the current Laboratory Information System as the third highest risk application to the state that requires an upgrade or replacement.
PROPOSAL	The proposal is investigating the delivery of a system with statewide access by Queensland pathology services, doctors, hospitals and other medical service providers. The project is expected to deliver the following benefits: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ modern, efficient and cost-effective pathology and forensics services ▪ more collaborative and cost effective service provision ▪ better patient outcomes ▪ greater innovation around 'in or near-home care'.
NEXT STEPS	Complete Detailed Business Case (in parallel with procurement)
BUILDING QUEENSLAND ROLE	Assisting with Detailed Business Case